

LOCAL EVENTS

—Mr. D. C. Bradway is in a critical condition.

—Miss Florence Phillips entertained the Medina school teachers Saturday evening.

—Mrs. Myron H. Ferriman entertained the Priscilla club Wednesday afternoon.

—Advised letters at the Medina postoffice are for: Lavern Miller and C. C. Vale.

—The Priscilla club will have a picnic supper at the home of Miss Helen Fokett Monday.

—Mrs. Blake Hendrickson will be hostess of the Medina Coterie next Tuesday afternoon.

—Miss Urent Atkins visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hoover several days of last week.

—Mr. John Beck attended the 4 o'clock organ recital at the Old Stone church in Cleveland Monday.

—The Junior League of the Methodist church will go on a nutting expedition next Saturday afternoon.

—The Young Ladies' Auxiliary of the Congregational church met with Miss Netha Clark Monday evening.

—The Hickox family reunion was held at the home of D. A. Tubbs last Saturday, fifty-seven being present.

—Miss Grace Lacy of Cleveland sang a beautiful solo at the morning service at the Congregational church Sunday.

—The teachers of the Garfield school building held a picnic supper Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. R. S. Hartman.

—Miss May Lowe was hostess of a six o'clock dinner Friday at her home, complimentary to her cousin Jeanette Webber, who was married on Wednesday.

—Mrs. A. X. Root entertained 12 little friends of Master Wayne's at a birthday surprise Saturday afternoon, it being his seventh birthday anniversary, Oct. 7.

—Miss Fern Welton, of Chicago, who has been visiting Miss Vera Hobart, was entertained at an informal party last Saturday afternoon given by her hostess.

—The Sunday school class of Mrs. Hass of the Methodist church gathered at the home of Mrs. Ethel Clark on Monday evening for a class shower and evening social.

—Mr. B. L. Wells, who has been unable to attend any public meetings for some time, was out to service on Sunday. It seems good to see his face among us once again.

—Mr. Archie Geisinger and Mr. Ralph House, spent Friday and Saturday in Cleveland, where they attended the football game between O. S. U. and Case on Saturday.

—Come everyone of ye that are sorely afflicted to the Oriental Realm at the K. of P. hall next Tuesday evening and be anointed with the oil of the ancients. By order of Grand Pasha, B. J.

—Hon. Stephen M. Young will give an address on the park Saturday evening at 8 o'clock (eastern time) on the subject of "Equal Suffrage" in case of rain Mr. Young will speak in the court house.

—At the class meeting of the men's Wednesday evening, Geo. M. Denton class of Methodist Episcopal church gave an interesting address upon the topic: "The Newspaper Editor and His Place in the Community."

—The rural mail carriers had an enjoyable meeting at the K. of P. hall last Saturday evening, after which they repaired to Menegay's restaurant and partook of a fish fry such as Frank knows so well how to prepare.

—The local Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A. met Monday evening and made plans for this season's activities, among the more important of which was the organization of a "Leaders' Training Class" under the direction of H. H. Root.

—Mrs. Lewis Randall and Mr. John Beck, two of Medina's organists, Monday evening became members of the Northern Ohio Chapter of the American Guild of Organists, through the influence used by Prof. Riemenschneider, who is dean of the chapter.

—On Saturday the boys of the Medina Y. M. C. A. will enjoy a "Mystery Hike," to start from the public square at 2 p. m. It is also proposed to have an evening social gathering at the association hall, especially for those who cannot go on the hike.

—Miss Lillian Phelps of Niagara Falls, a well known lecturer, will speak in the Congregational church Wednesday evening, October 21, on temperance. She is said to be a brilliant speaker and no one should miss the opportunity of hearing her.

—On next Saturday evening, Oct. 17, an open meeting of the Grange will be held at Poe Grange Hall. Free entertainment will be given. The topics of the day will be discussed—cooperation, purchasing, woman's suffrage and last, but not least, wet and dry; by speakers from abroad. Everyone invited. Begins at 8 o'clock eastern time.

—Delegations from Medina and Seville are going to Wadsworth on next Friday evening to hear addresses on the adoption of the dry amendment. The meeting will be held in the park if weather permits. In case of rain the speaking will be in the new Reformed church.

—At the meeting of the village council Tuesday night the two recent bond issues, one for the sewer extension of $3,332, the other for improvement of the water works, $2,500, were sold to Joseph Andrews. The former brought 5½ per cent, the latter 6 per cent, both with accrued interest.

—Mrs. F. M. Plank went to Nova last Thursday morning on account of an accident to her sister, Mrs. Crittendon, who had her collar bone broken in a runaway. The horse that she was driving shied at a loaded wagon which was standing along the roadside, throwing Mrs. Crittendon to the pave.

—The sixty-first Semi-Annual meeting of the Medina Congregational Association will be held in Amherst, formerly called North Amherst, next Wednesday and Thursday, October 21-22, 1914. This is the first time that the Medina Association has gone to that place. Rev. Fritsch is moderator.

—The fall term of common pleas court was to have opened last Monday for the hearing of jury cases, but it has been postponed for four weeks. However the judges will hold court next Monday in certain cases in equity and to dispose of the cases where in the present occupants of the jail are concerned.

—A week or two ago a strange colored fellow appeared in Seville with a sorrel mare about eight years old, which he offered to sell for a price about one-half the real value. This caused him to be suspected of having stolen it and when questioned closely he left the horse and also left town. As yet the owner has not been found.

—Her many friends will regret to learn that the illness of Mrs. Clara Gardner reached the point where it became necessary to remove her to a hospital in Cleveland Wednesday morning to undergo an operation. The operation was made Thursday morning, 50 gall stones being removed, also an ulcer discovered at the lower part of the stomach. Mrs. Gardner, while very weak, it is believed will recover.

—The judges of the court of appeals sent word to County Clerk Hatch Thursday that they would be in Medina at 2 o'clock today (Friday) to render a decision in the case of Mary E. Norris vs. Wadsworth village, in which plaintiff seeks to have sustained a former favorable decision in common pleas court which reduced the amount of assessment placed on her property by Wadsworth village for public improvement and from which decision the latter made appeal.

—The burning out of a fuse in a north-bound Southwestern car Saturday morning ignited the car underneath the floor and but for the proximity of another car going the same way which backed the disabled car to a place some distance away where water was available doubtless it would have been destroyed. The fire was extinguished and the car taken to the repair shops at Kamms. There were only a few passengers on the burning car and they were transferred to the limited.

—Equal Woman's Suffrage workers in the local organization are busy these days. A meeting called by Mrs. Albert McMahon of Cleveland was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Cora Blakeslee on E. Washington street. At this meeting Mrs. R. E. Hart was elected head of the executive committee and Miss Elsie Bennett secretary. The work of the local organizations in the county, is under the direction of the Cleveland organization. There will be two meetings in town Saturday night, one in the park, the other in the court house. Also one at the Montville Grange hall the same night. Each will be addressed by an able speaker.

—The county commissioners at their meeting Monday made the following appointments as judges in the boys corn growing contest which ends Nov. 7. Sharon—John Swigart and Ward D. Briggs; Westfield township—E. K. Kerr and L. L. Welday; Spencer township—Hart Stewart and Ed. Parent. Boys from other townships who want to enter this contest must hurry and get their applications in. The winner will get a free trip to Washington.

SURVEYORS IN WRECK

When the steering rod broke, Friday, a car belonging to W. E. Bowman was ditched a short distance this side of Chippewa Lake and completely wrecked. The occupants were a surveying party consisting of Birney Bowman, Walter Bibbins and Arthur French. The three were thrown out with violence, although none were injured save for a slight bruise and cut sustained by Mr. Bibbins. The front truck of the auto was ripped out, the sides smashed and the spokes of another wheel smashed in. John Butt-dorff hauled the wreck back to Medina Friday evening.

HON. ELLSWORTH R. BATHRICK
Who will be re-elected to Congress from this district November 3

THE MAN WITH A RECORD FOR DOING THINGS

CITY MARKET

We handle nothing but the best.
Do your buying here and save money

Special Saturday

Pork steak or chops....	20c
Pork shoulder	18c
Side Pork	18c
Pork Sausage	16c
Sage if you like
Round and Sirloin steak	20c
Home made liver pudding 3 lbs. ..	25c
Stewing Chickens	18c
Extra nice Spring chickens ..	20c

Nice oysters all meat 45c per quart.
Fresh Fish, White Fish, Herring and Pike

Yours for Business,

W. G. STEINGASS

—St. Paul's Guild of the Episcopal church met at the home of Mrs. Ed. Bostwick last Friday evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. Will Hammer-schmidt are rejoicing over the advent of an 8½ lb. son Tuesday evening.

—The Golden Rule circle of King's Daughters will hold an all-day meeting next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. F. M. Plank.

—Medina Chapter O. E. S. will give an October party, Tuesday evening, Oct. 20, in the Masonic hall, to which the members and husbands are invited.

—The officers and class leaders of the Ladies' Benevolent Society met at the home of Mrs. R. M. McDowell Wednesday afternoon to formulate plans for the year's work. Financially the past year brought in $825.06, while socially many pleasant functions were enjoyed.

VALLEY CITY

The entertainment which was given here last Monday by the Bertha Wood en Orchestra was a grand success. The people could not all be accommodated with chairs, but in spite of that, every one has a word of praise for them. Come to hear Mr. Byron King on Nov. 7.

Wanissa Platz is confined to her home with an attack of scarlet fever. Mrs. Carrie Metzger entertained about 20 guests last Sunday.

Mrs. Edith Brintnall of Medina spent Sunday at Dr. R. A. Brintnall's. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Niles entertained company from Cleveland last week.

Mr. Eddie and Miss Ruth Bayer and lady friend of Akron spent Sunday and Monday at Mr. Henry Bayer's.

Clinton E. Bement

Spencer, Ohio

Progressive Candidate

for

County Auditor

7-3p

Election Nov. 3, 1914.

Mr. Harry Thompson of Columbia Station and Miss Marie Koons were married Oct. 11 at Cleveland. They had a large church wedding.

Mrs. Bertha Hasel and Mrs. Robert Steingasser spent Monday in Cleveland.

Mrs. Chas. Hasel is on the sick list. Mrs. L. Bay and Mrs. G. Bay and Mrs. H. Bay are spending the week with Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Bay of Lima.

Mrs. Henry Gunkleman entertained company from the State Road last Sunday.

Miss Rose Huttinger attended the wedding of Mr. Wm. Niles (formerly of Valley City) and Miss Josephine Hockwalt of Cleveland on Oct. 14. This was one of the most beautiful weddings held at St. Michael's church in Cleveland this season.

Mrs. George Thompson is confined to her bed with malarial fever.

Mrs. Henry Huttinger has been confined to her bed for the past week.

Mrs. Mammie Senker of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. Jennie Ermine of Cleveland were visitors in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kempfe of Cleveland spent last week here with friends.

Mrs. Worth spent several days in Sullivan last week.

The Crux of the Clothes Question

You're the one to be pleased; you know what you want better than we or the neighbors do; PERSONAL SATISFACTION is the thing in clothes.

Our stock serges with suggestions for the comfort and good looks that make a man pleased with himself and pleased with his purchase.

We believe the smart, sensible styling, the staunch hand-tailoring, the sturdy wool fabrics of our Michaels-Stern and Hart Schaffner & Marx models express just the way you feel about clothes.

And the price—$10 to $25—is the fruit of our best efforts to spread our reputation as a big-value store.

Thos. Ferriman & Sons'

Leading Clothiers, Hatters and Furnishers.

You cannot have "good luck" in finding good tools unless you use good judgment and go to the right place for them. Come to us and you will make no mistake.

Our tool department is a pride with us. Long experience in buying has given us the "edge" on the tool business of this town. Buy yours from us.

Remember our hardware stands hard ware

"See our endless line of tools on display this week"

OATMANS HDW.

OBITUARY

David E. Warrensford, was born at Burbank, Wayne County, O., on the 4th day of Dec. 1866, and died at his home in York on the 5th day of Oct. 1914. Accordingly he was a little less than 48 years of age.

On the 31st of May, 1891, he was united in marriage to Sarah Manning, daughter of Richard Manning, of York. To them were born two daughters, Rhoda and Gladys. The mother and two daughters are the broken family circle that survive to mourn the loss of the beloved husband and father.